Jour Overcoat

The proving evidence is in the making and tailoring of our Overcoats for this season. The strongest parts are put where you can't see them. You know when the style is correct in an Overcoat, but you must trust to the responsibility of the house for the rest.

Ours embody all the essential qualities of style and workmanship demanded by well dressed men. There's a distinguished appearance about the "hang" of our coats. You may have noticed this in Overcoats bearing our label. You can be convinced of it by trying one on. No doubt you know we have by far the largest assortment in this city. As the $10 to $18

The writer personally knows people who were afflicted with the worst form of bleeding and protruding piles and who were permanently cured by the use of Pyramid Pile Cure. In every one of these cases the attending physician had assured the sufferer that only by an operation could be rid himself of the disease; so much for the infallibility of the doctors. This remedy, which is sold by all druggists at the low price of fifty cents, is in suppository form, is applied directly to the parts affected, and performs its work quietly and painlessly. The Pyramid Drug Co. Marshall, Mich., will mail free to any address a book telling all about piles or hemorrholds, their cause and cure. PITTSTON.

Pittston, Nov. 3 .- Mrs. Isaac Sheppard, aged 73 years, died this morning at 8.30 o'clock, after a lingering illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Pierce, at Wilkes-Barre. ceased had been a resident of this city for many years, and was well known among the older residents. The following family survive: Mrs. John Vander-burg, Joseph Sheppard, of this city: C. S. Sheppard, of West Pittston; Mrs. Joseph Buckenmeyer, Mrs. Charles Pierce, Mrs. Frank Pierce, of Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. James Gaffney, of Dubois, Continued delays in the work on the Pittston theatre will probably result in it not being opened until about New Year's. It had been hoped to have it in readiness by Thanksgiving day. The brick work is almost completed, and the roof girders are now being placed in position.

Thomas Hennigan, of Old Forge, was taken to the Pittston hospital this morning, suffering from a fractured knee-cap on the right leg. While coming out of his chamber he was struck by a mine car, which was being taken into the chamber.

Elmer Smith, for the past four years foreman of the Exeter Machine works at West Pittston, and who resigned his position last week, was tendered a banquet Saturday evening by his late under-comployes. The reception was held in Henry Grattan hall, and dur-ing the evening Mr. Smith was presented with a gold chain and charm. Martin Wagner, of Reading, is Mr. Smith's successor at the Exeter shops Rev.
